MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with Summer Interns Working for Congressman Tony Coelho (D., CA)

On Wednesday, 27 June 1984, at 2:00 p.m., [redacted] Public Affairs Office, met with Bryn Batrich, Deputy Administrative Assistant to Congressman Tony Coelho (D., CA) and eight summer interns assigned to the Congressman's office.

[redacted] addressed the group on the Agency's role in the foreign policy decision-making process. Following his well-received presentation, the students asked a number of questions about how the Agency operates overseas, job opportunities available, what disciplines were needed, etc. One query dealt with why Members of Congress did not have to obtain security clearances before being allowed to receive classified material. The students reflected amazement and surprise when told their "clearances" were from the electorate.
